Silver Lane Managing Director, Peter Nesvold, Elected to NYSSA's Board

New York, NY, January 6, 2015 – Silver Lane, a premier M&A advisor to the financial services industry, is pleased to announce that Managing Director, Peter Nesvold, has been elected to the Board of Directors of the New York Society of Security Analysts (NYSSA). Peter's three-year term runs through December 2017.

NYSSA was founded in 1937 by a group of professionals that included Benjamin Graham, the "father of securities analysis" and one of the most influential individuals in the history of finance. With a membership of nearly 9,000, NYSSA is the largest CFA[®] society in North America and a founding member of the CFA Institute.

"We are proud of Peter and his well-deserved Board position with NYSSA," said Elizabeth Nesvold, Silver Lane's Managing Partner. "We encourage our partners to play active roles in shaping the industry and mentoring the next generation of industry professionals."
