Elizabeth Nesvold Named Among the Most Influential Women in Mid-Market M&A

New York, NY, December 19, 2017 — Silver Lane Advisors, a premier investment bank that specializes in the financial services industry, announced today that its founder and Managing Partner, Elizabeth Nesvold, was recognized among the Most Influential Women in Mid-Market M&A by Mergers & Acquisitions magazine.

Every year, Mergers & Acquisitions honors the women who are driving change in middle market M&A. For the special report, the magazine identified 35 of the industry's best and brightest female dealmakers, including corporate development executives, private equity investors, investment bankers, lenders, attorneys, and other advisers. Nesvold was one of seven investment bankers on the list.

"I am truly honored for this recognition, and am particularly grateful to Mergers & Acquisitions magazine for its support of women in finance," said Ms. Nesvold. "Encouraging diversity in our industry fosters new ideas and perspectives; this in turn accelerates innovation and corporate growth. The many accomplished women who earned today's recognition are cases in point."

With The Most Influential Women in Mid-Market M&A, Mergers & Acquisitions joins a long history of celebrating female business leaders at SourceMedia, the publishing company that owns the magazine.
